

Group Presentation – Connecting Scripture and Leadership

You will work in groups of 4-5 and take a passage of either the Ruth or Matthew text (that we have engaged in class). From that, create a presentation that will demonstrate what the text says about leadership. Your group can do a dramatization; mini worship service; poetry in motion; dance or some other type of music artistry, etc. . Whether your presentation is more straightforward or more creative will depend on the make-up of your group and how you interact.

The group also needs to submit a paper that will consist of:

1. How you organized and ran your group meetings.
2. What you have learned from your textbook assignments and classroom discussions and lectures.

Presentations should last 15 to 20 minutes max. The paper should be 1-2 pages max.

Be imaginative. Be creative. Most of all enjoy the process.

12 point font, 1 inch margins, double-spaced, Chicago Style is not necessary as this is not an academic paper

Include your names and the course title on each page

Due: February 3, 2017

Print out a copy and bring it to class as I will want to reference your paper during the presentation. You are also to submit a copy of the paper to mwilson@lancasterseminary.edu before class begins.

Rubric for Grade:

- 1) Content – have you presented information about leadership that helps us understand more fully what leadership is and how to lead?
- 2) Creativity – have you engaged the class in thinking, feeling, and imaging leadership?

- 3) Engagement with text – have you helped us to engage a Scriptural narrative and move into that narrative in terms of our leadership?
- 4) Working as a group – has our group worked together, moved through any conflict, and utilized the gifts of each person?
